PRACTICE makes PERFECT (Matt. 5:48)

Let us take our practice this week from the advice given by St. John Vianney (feast day Aug. 4th) by invoking God's power, protection, and grace by often making the sign of the cross. He says, "The sign of the cross is the most terrible weapon against the devil. Thus the Church wishes not only that we have it continually in front of our minds to recall to us just what our souls are worth and what they cost Jesus Christ, but also that we should make it at every juncture ourselves: when we go to bed, when we awaken during the night, when we get up, when we begin any action, and, above all, when we are tempted."

PRAYER for the WEEK: For a Cure

St. Alphonsus Liguori - The Arthritis Saint (Feast day Aug. 1)

Glorious Saint Alphonsus, loving Father of the poor and sick, all your life you devoted yourself with a charity really heroic to lightening their spiritual and bodily miseries. Full of confidence in your tender pity for the sick, since you yourself have patiently borne the cross of illness, I come to you for help in my present need... (Mention it!)

Loving Father of the suffering, Saint Alphonsus, whom I invoke as the arthritis Saint, since you have suffered from this disease in your lifetime, look with compassion upon me in my suffering. Beg God, to give me good health. If it is not God's will to cure me, then give me strength to bear my cross patiently and to offer my sufferings in union with my Crucified Savior and His Mother of Sorrows, for the glory of God and the salvation of souls, in reparation for my sins and those of others, for the needs of this troubled world, and for the souls in purgatory.

Our Father. Hail Mary. Glory be. Saint Alphonsus, patron of the sick, pray for me. Amen.
