PRACTICE makes PERFECT (Matt. 5:48)

This week we celebrate the feast of St. Luke the Evangelist, (Oct. 18th) writer of one of the four Gospels. It is because of St. Luke alone that we have many of our familiar biblical accounts, such as the Annunciation, the Visitation, the Prodigal Son, the Good Samaritan, and the account of the sisters Mary and Martha to name a few. Luke begins his Gospel addressing it to Dear Theophilus, which means friend of God. This week, be that friend of God, and pick up your Bible turning to Luke once each day, reading it as his letter to you. Read it from the perspective of the heart of a friend speaking to your heart, about who Jesus is for him, and who he wishes Him to be for you.

PRAYER for the WEEK: Respect of Life

Heavenly Father, the beauty and dignity of human life was the crowning of your creation. You further ennobled that life when your Son became one with us in his incarnation. Help us to realize the sacredness of human life and to respect it from the moment of conception until the last moment at death. Give us courage to speak with truth and love and with conviction in defence of life. Help us to extend the gentle hand of mercy and forgiveness to those who do not reverence your gift of life. To all, grant pardon for the times we have failed to be grateful for your precious gift of life or to respect it in others. We ask this in Jesus' Name. Amen.
