PRACTICE makes PERFECT (Matt. 5:48)

As the Church's liturgical year begins to wind down, our readings begin to focus on the end times, and the last judgment. Why not take some time in prayer this week and make a really good examination of conscience. Even better... take that examination with you and make a good confession.

WEEKEND Masses are now BOOKED for the year. There are STILL OPENINGS to have a WEEKDAY Mass said for your loved one. On behalf of those who have had Masses offered for them, thank you. There is no greater prayer that can be said.

PRAYER for the WEEK: O Lord Forgive

My failure to be true even to my own accepted standards:
O Lord, forgive!
My self-deception in the face of temptation:
O Lord, forgive!
My choosing of the worse when I knew the better:
O Lord forgive!
My failure to apply to myself the standards of conduct that I demand of others;
O Lord forgive!
My blindness to the suffering of others and my slowness to be taught by my own:
O Lord, forgive!
My complacency toward wrongs that do not touch my own case and my over sensitiveness to those that do:
O Lord, forgive!
My slowness to see the good in my fellows and to see the evil in myself:
O Lord forgive!
My hardness of heart toward my neighbor's faults and my readiness to make allowance for my own:
O Lord for give!
My unwillingness to believe that You have called me to a small work and my brother to a great one:
O Lord, forgive!
