PRACTICE makes PERFECT (Matt. 5:48)

Isaiah, Paul, and Peter in our readings this week heard God's call in their life, because they were attentive to his voice. How often are we filling our time listening to other voices such as those that are on the TV? The challenge for this week is to replace 30 minutes of TV time with 30 extra minutes of devotion/prayer time. If you find 30 minutes too long... then start with what you can. In that time ask the Lord, "Jesus where are you calling me to follow you more in my life right now?" Then listen for the answer he might be placing upon your heart.

Please Note: If you had put in a Mass intention this past year, but did not see it on the schedule and were wondering if it had been said, please contact Fr. Tim at the office.

PRAYER for the WEEK: My Mission

God has created me to do Him some definite service. He has committed some work to me which He has not committed to another. I have my mission. I may never know it in this life, but I shall be told it in the next. I am a link in a chain, a bond of connection between persons. He has not created me for naught. I shall do good; I shall do His work. I shall be an angel of peace, a preacher of truth in my own place, while not intending it if I do but keep His commandments. Therefore, I will trust Him, whatever I am, I can never be thrown away. If I am in sickness, my sickness may serve Him, in perplexity, my perplexity may serve Him. If I am in sorrow, my sorrow may serve Him. He does nothing in vain. He knows what He is about. He may take away my friends. He may throw me among strangers. He may make me feel desolate, make my spirits sink, hide my future from me. Still, He knows what He is about. ~ John Henry Cardinal Newman
