29th Sunday in Ordinary Time Reflection

The gospel tells us that Jesus always reminds us to always pray. Jesus told the disciple about the story of the Widow and the Unjust Judge. The Widow wanted justice but the Judge doesn't want to let the Widow have what she wants.

In reality, people are like the widow. People want justice and want us to be fair, but society doesn't want the people to have equality. We, the people are working hard to earn the rights that we need to have. In this situation, God wants us to realize that in praying and trusting in God, we can overcome any of these problems. God is our strength and prayer is our power.
