1st Sunday in Advent

What was going on at the time of Noah? During the time of Noah, Yahweh saw the wickedness of men that's why He decided to destroy them. However, Noah was a blameless and righteous man and because of his righteousness he and a handful of his relatives and a few animals were saved by Yahweh.

From the time of Noah let us move fast forward to our present time. Is there still wickedness and evil today? The answer is a resounding yes! Evil and wickedness are still prevalent today, it's actually everywhere. For example, whether we admit it or not many of us also continue to harbor evil and wickedness in our hearts.

On this first Sunday of Advent we are also reminded about the uncertainty of life. That it may end anytime that's why we must seriously hear God's message for us to repent and walk away from our sins and embrace goodness, forgiveness and love.
