3rd Sunday in Advent

The story is told about a man who was looking for the presence of Jesus in his life. So, he went to the highest mountain with the hope of finding Jesus but he did not find Jesus there. He again went to the most majestic church with the hope of finding Jesus but he again, did not find Jesus there.

Are you looking for Jesus' presence in your life? Many of us are still looking for the presence of the Lord in our lives. But the Lord is with us already we only fail to recognize it because many of us are enslaved by the things of this world.

We are with the Lord when we pray. We are with the Lord when we go to Holy Mass. We are with the Lord when we read and allow the words of the bible to speak to us. And there are many more manifestations of the Lord's presence in our life which we fail to recognize.

When John the Baptist heard in prison of the works of the Christ, he sent his disciples to Jesus with this question, "Are you the one who is to come, or should we look for another?" By telling John's disciples about the things that He does. Jesus was in effect telling the followers of John that there's no more need to look for that somebody that is to come because He is already there in their midst.
