2nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Do you live the virtue of Humility? CS Lewis once said: “Humility is not thinking less of yourself, it's thinking of yourself less.”

When John the Baptist saw Jesus coming toward him, he said this: “Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world. John recognized the identity of Jesus because he lived the virtue of humility to the core of his bones. There was no fakery and pretension, it was authentic humility.

We also always hear these words of John when we go to Holy Mass. The priest raises the Sacred Host and pronounces these very words of John at Holy Mass before Holy Communion as the faithful kneel and fix its gaze upon it with deep reverence.

Jesus will heal us from all our sins no matter how grave. But we must humble ourselves before our Lord. We will never recognize the magnificence of Jesus if we don’t have humility. And we will never fully grasp the reason why John called Jesus the lamb of God.

PRAYER for the WEEK – PRAYER TO SAINT MARGUERITE BOURGEOYS

God of love, by the intercession of Saint Marguerite Bourgeoys, who contributed to the New World, watch over our homes today. Give to all children the daily bread and love they need. Help adolescents discover meaning in their lives. Help couples grow in love and fidelity. Guide parents in the education of their children. Fill the hearts of grandparents with peace and tenderness toward their grandchildren. Come to the help of those whose happiness is threatened. Inspire and enlighten all those committee, like Saint Marguerite, to the well-being and happiness of families. Help us to discover in the Holy Family of Nazareth a real model of family life in the spirt of the Gospel. Amen.
